

HOLIDAY PARTIES AT COUNTRY HOUSES A FEATURE OF THE WEEK

Much Country Entertaining Arranged for Thanksgiving

Dinners and Dances at Suburban Places—Many Persons of Society Opening Winter Establishments—Other News of Activities in Town.

ALTHOUGH Thanksgiving is essentially a family day, there will be much entertaining in the way of house parties over the holiday at the nearby country estates down on Long Island, along the Hudson, up in Tuxedo Park, over in Jersey and in the Westchester section. Special events have been arranged for the day at many of the country clubs and at most of them the festivities begin on Thanksgiving eve with a dance.

Mrs. John Turner Atterbury will spend Thanksgiving with friends at the Piping Rock Club at Locust Valley, L. I. She will remain there until December 6, when she sails for Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hamblen Sears will also be at Piping Rock Club over the holiday. They went there last week from their country home at Oyster Bay.

Mrs. Osgood Pell is another who will be at the Piping Rock Club over Thanksgiving. She recently closed her house in Westbury and went to the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coleman Drayton will be at Tuxedo Park, where they have just taken an apartment at the Tennis Court. They will remain there through the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Foster Carey will also spend the winter at Tuxedo Park. They have just taken an apartment at the Tennis Court.

Mr. Bronson Murray Cutting has come from Santa Fe, N. M., to spend Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. William Bayard Cutting, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Aldrich will have a house party at their country home at Snug Harbor, Great Neck, L. I. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Louis Aston Knight of Paris.

Miss Mary Hoyt Wiborg will give a musical on Thanksgiving night at her home, 35 Fifth avenue.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bernon S. Prentice have returned from the Hawaiian Islands to their home, 927 Park avenue.

Mrs. Antoinette Converse, who came from Santa Barbara, Cal., to attend the wedding of her son, Mr. Converse M. Converse, to Miss Marion J. McCall, on November 18, left last week for California.

The membership committee of the Pastboard Club has sent out invitations for a housewarming at the club, 16 East Fifty-ninth street, on Thanksgiving Day from 4 until 7 o'clock. There will be bridge and dancing.

A reception in honor of Prof. J. Elbogen of Berlin and Dr. Felix Perles of Koenigsberg will be given by Mr. Adolph Lewinson at his residence, 881 Fifth avenue, on Wednesday evening, December 6.

Mrs. Louis Ralston, who has been making the Plaza her headquarters since her return from Europe, has taken an apartment at 15 West Fifty-fifth street.

Mrs. Frederic Nelson returned last week from Virginia Hot Springs to the Plaza, where she will remain until March, when she will go abroad.

Miss Frances Ogden Jones on Saturday will go to the Hotel Lorraine, where she has taken apartments for the winter.

Mr. Benjamin S. Welles was among those sailing last week for Europe. He will remain abroad all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fletcher have gone to White Sulphur Springs to remain until early in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Weldon have taken an apartment at 113 East Seventy-second street. For some time Mr. and Mrs. Weldon resided at 25 East Thirty-sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope have returned to their New York home from Hot Springs.

Mrs. Samuel Keyser, who has been at Atlantic City, has returned to her apartment, 300 Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy W. Baldwin have closed their house in Tuxedo Park and opened their city residence for the winter.

Gen. and Mrs. George R. Dyer have closed their house at Brookville, L. I., and will be at 4 East Eighty-eighth street, where they have taken an apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Norvin Hewitt Green, when they return from their wedding trip, will reside at the Hewitt country estate at Ringwood Manor, N. J. Mrs. Green was Miss Irene Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Arthur Pierce of 11 East Eighty-eighth street, where the wedding took place on Monday.

Mrs. George F. Shady has taken an apartment for the winter at 25 East Eighty-fourth street.

Mrs. Henry Snydam Satterlee will be at 55 East Eighty-sixth street this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Whitman have returned from Forest Hills and have taken an apartment for the winter at the Hotel Belvedere.

For the benefit of the Army Relief Society at Governors Island an entertainment and dance will be given there at the Officers Club on Saturday. It will be under the patronage of Mrs. Henry Bischoff, Mrs. Franklin Q. Brown, Mrs. Avery Andrews, Miss Grace Bigelow and Mrs. Ernest M. Stiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Van Allen have returned from Echo Lake, Pa., and have taken an apartment at the Hotel Belvedere. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Franklin and their daughter, Miss Harriet Franklin, also have an apartment at the Belvedere for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Hadden have taken an apartment at 105 East Eighty-fifth street for the winter. They formerly resided at 238 Henry street, Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillian H. Steinbrunne and Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Steinbrunne sailed last week for Europe. They are on their way to Paris to attend the marriage of their sister, Miss Grace Steinbrunne, to Count Jean de Laugier.

Plan Social Events For 'Engineers Week'

A program of events culminating in a dinner and dance at the Hotel Astor has been arranged by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers during the week of the society's annual meeting, beginning Monday, December 4.

More than 2,000 engineers, educators, economists and their wives will attend December 6 the women will give a luncheon Friday at the Ritz-Carlton for her debutante daughter, Miss Eunice S. Smith.

The week will have a decidedly busy ending. Dr. and Mrs. Frederic Peterson, who are in their new home, 363 East Seventy-eighth street, will hold a reception there on Saturday night with dancing to introduce their daughter, Miss Virginia Peterson. In the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Malmgren of 150 West Seventy-third street will introduce their daughter, Miss Leona Malmgren. The largest dance of Saturday night will be that to be given at the Plaza, by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nelson Voss and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Jenkins for the combined debut of their daughters, Miss Alice McKim Voss and Miss Helen Jenkins. Miss Voss has many relatives in New York. She is a granddaughter of the late Rev. Dr. Hazlet McKim and on her father's side is a distant cousin of Miss Cathleen Vanderbilt. In advance of this dance, Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Schreiber, of 308 Park avenue, will give a large dinner in the Italian garden of the Ambassador. Miss Schreiber is a sister of Mr. Pierrepoint David Schreiber, who last April married Miss Alice Lee Miller, granddaughter of the late J. Bowers Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Stettinius of 1021 Park avenue, have announced that their daughter, Miss Betty Stettinius, who was recently operated on for appendicitis, is progressing so favorably that it has not been found necessary to change the date of their proposed dance. It will be held on the night of December 27, and in advance of it Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Stone will give a dinner for the daughter, Miss Margaret Stone. Another dinner of that night will be given by Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. Hayes Brooks for their daughter, Miss Marie Brooks.

Mrs. Townsend Morgan has decided to give a dinner on the night of January 4, at 132 East Sixty-first street, for her daughter, Miss Gertrude de Lancy Watts, who will arrive here from England December 14. Mrs. Morgan will later take her dinner guests to the dance, to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Colby, at 49 East Sixty-sixth street, to introduce their youngest daughter, Miss Frances Colby.

One of the dancing organizations that will include among its members many of the debutantes is the Saturday Evening Supper Dance. The first for this season will be held in the rose room of the Plaza, December 9, and the success last year prompted the renewal this season. Among the patronesses are Mrs. T. Oakley Rhinelander, Mrs. Schuyler Nelson Warren, Mrs. E. Livingston Coster, Mrs. Rene de Alborno Carrillo, Mrs. J. Theus Munda, Mrs. Hubert D. Bassett and Mrs. William Murray Black.
